To Whom It May Concern:

I am very protective and choosy when it comes to my pets. I often decide not to travel because I am not satisfied with the honesty and integrity of people who offer pet sitting services. Zoomerrands has filled this need for me and their reasonable prices allow me to take the travel opportunities that I have been turning down.

Michael Weisman took care of my pets and went beyond the job requirements that he was hired for. He truly took care of my pets as if they were his own. His communication skills are top notch and he was always available by telephone and email.

I would not hesitate to use Michael again and feel sure that he would choose only responsible and caring contractors for Zoomerrands.

Sincerely,

Johanna Wingert
